

California Honey Festival

June 15 & 16 9:00am-5:00pm
Central Park, downtown Fillmore

The 2nd annual California Honey Festival will be a fun filled learning experience. Travel by train to Bennett's Honey farm halfway between Fillmore and Piru. Take an up-close and personal, one-of-a-kind tour to learn about bees and witness how honey is processed.

See demonstrations by bee keepers along the train route as well as browsing the many craft, food and commercial vendors at the event. A variety of live musical entertainers all weekend. There will be a sanctioned St. Louis BBQ cooking contest on both days

An Educational and tasty experience for all ages.
