Explore history, discover antiques & treasures, enjoy lunch on a vintage train

Start your day by visiting the Fillmore Historical Museum & Depot, at 350 Main Street, located next to the train ticket office. Then step aboard your vintage dining car at 11:15am where, once underway you will enjoy a farm to table "So Cal Garden Salad" served with country vegetable soup, French bread & butter, coffee or iced tea and carrot/raisin cupcakes. Your destination is the Loose Caboose Garden Center and Gift Emporium, where you can browse the unique roadside country store. Inside and outside you'll find unusual one-of-a-kind gift items a large selection of locally produced honey products from Bennett's Honey Farm, local salsa's, jams, jellies and jerky. There are many antiques & collectibles scattered throughout the buildings and an assortment of Christmas ornaments and decorations year round. You will also find garden artwork, koi ponds & supplies, fountains, pottery, fresh seasonal produce, an aviary and a variety of plants. During the return trip to Fillmore relax as we serve you coffee and dessert. Once back in Fillmore, a docent will guide you to a few of the quaint antique and collectible stores, housed in the early 20th century buildings that compile the historic downtown business district. A minimum group of 40 people is required to book a date. If a smaller group or individuals would like to reserve seats on this train, dates already booked by larger groups are available upon request. Weekday minimum of 70 people required to run the train. All Aboard for Fun!
